WHIM WHAMS

The end man is a big old fellow.
In fact he's a little paradox—Perfect he always makes us say.
And yet he gives his end a weigh.

"Back to the farm" sounds good,
But "stay on the farm" is better.

An expert is a fellow who tells others how to do things he can't do himself.

An echo is said to be the only thing that can cheat a woman out of the last word.

Up to the time a girl is thirty she looks for a rich husband. After that she looks for a husband.

A large number of talking machines are made every year, but a much greater number are born.

It has its father's hair—I am glad it's being kept in the family—An' it has its mother's voice—Lord help it.

A Carrizozo man confesses that he doesn't play cards for money.
But, however, those who play with him do.

Air baths are said to be coming in style with the young ladies of Roswell. Probably some of them need a ring.

It is said that woman owing to her peculiar physical construction, is unable to jump except at an offer of marriage.

The fact that a man is downcast doesn't necessarily mean that he is in trouble. It may be that he has caught sight of himself in a mirror.

We noticed the following inscription recently on a bank safe: "Fire, Mob and Burglar Proof." Who ever heard of a safe being mobbed?

El Paso claims to have the stingiest man in the world. Married recently to a home girl, he walked her around a block for their bridal tour, bought her a nickel's worth of stick candy for a wedding present —and then suggested that they save the candy for the children.

A New Mexico exchange says:
"There was a narrow escape from a serious accident on North Market street this morning caused by the carelessness of a lady driving a horse attached to a buggy on the wrong side of the street." Now the Outlook would like to know on which side of the street a horse should be attached.

A man by the name of Hug, together with his son, are trying to have some kind of a lawsuit redoctored in court in a northern New Mexico county. It is not a case of hugging, because no one ever objected to two hugs. However, we hope the two Hugs will get what is coming to them without getting hugged.

A new style religion, in which no hell is recognized, is said to have been put out in Alamogordo. After living in Alamogordo it is quite natural that the people should not want to take any future hell in their hands.

TAX LEVIES

Attorney General Clancy has addressed a letter to Secretary Ernest of the tax commission and E. A.
James, one of the directors of the tax payers' association touching the question of tax levies under the present law. The points touched on were as follows:

1. In reference to the proportionate reduction of levies to com-within the limits fixed by the Bursum law: That the numerator of the fraction to be constructed in determining county levies must be five mills less the levies made for bridges and court fund, and the denominator the former maximum limits of levies which are actually made, excluding the levy for county high schools.

2. The county high school levy should be considered a special levy and need be included within the 5 mill county limitation.

3. The county unit tax of one half of one mill should be considered a state tax, but outside of the 3 mills allowed for state purposes.

4. That in computing the five percent increase over previous revenue produced, the mathematical sense of "multiplied or extended" and not the amount actually collected in taxes, should be considered.

5. The computation of the five percent increase must be on the basis of the aggregate of all levies made in the previous year and not on the amounts of particular levies for particular purposes.
